the widening gap between its demand and supply; and

(d) if so, what other steps Government propose to take to save the fertilizer industry?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI JAYANTILAL VIRCHANDBHAI SHAH): (a) While the nitrogenous fertilizer industry has not been affected, the phosphatic fertilizer units which depend on imported intermediates, have been partially affected due to the Gulf War.

(b) The prices of Naphtha and other petroleum products used for fertilizer production have gone up on account of 25 per cent Gulf Surcharge, Similarly, the price of imported fertilizers is also showing an upward trend. However, the selling price of fertilizer has not been increased in the country.

(c) Fertilizers will be imported, as hitherto, to bridge the gap between the assessed demand and indigenous supply.

(d) No other steps are under consideration at present in this regard.
